4. The question has been considered in 1907, 1914 & 1915, & has been decided in the negative on all the three occasions.

5. As a result of the strict application of the rules, several officers have passed all the tests, which they would not probably have done if exemptions were more easily had.

6. The Senior Asst Commrs grade is practically the recruiting ground for Dy Commissionerships, & it would lead to considerable inconvenience if it gets filled by unqualified officers who may will not in all likelihood be fit for District charges. Promotion on the mere ground of Seniority, age & mediocre service must stop somewhere, & the post position of a 1st grade Asstt Commr are not an inadequate reward for such persons.

Sir,

I beg leave to submit the following for the benign consideration of Government which I request you to be so good as to move through the Revenue Commissioner:-

In the recent order of Government filling up vacancies in the grade of Senior Assistant Commissioners, I have been overlooked probably on the score of my not having passed the Civil Part II Examination -

I have been under the impression that Part II of the Civil Examination is one essential for only officers in the Judicial department; and did not endeavour to pass it. I did not expect that this circumstance would prejudice my promotions and advancement in the Revenue Department. However, as I have but a year and eight months more to attain to the age of superannuation,

I humbly pray that Government may be graciously pleased to treat me as exempted from passing the Civil Part. II ~~Examination~~ and view with favour my eligibility for promotion to the grade of Senior Assistant Commissioners, a retirement from service in which grade would, besides enhancing the honor thereof, be of a little more benefit to me in the pension to which I will be entitled.

I earnestly solicit a kind compliance of Government with my humble request and trust my prayer will be favourably heard and granted.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant.
